

Project #1: NOT A PENNY MORE; NOT A PENNY LESS

Due date: December 17.

Class work: November 29 – December 16

Points:

Class work days 10 pts a day. (total: 120points): Everyday you are unprepared to work in class you lose the points for the work day.

Project is worth 200 points:

- 100 points will be based on accuracy of work
- 100 points based on the quality of the project's display with all the required components.

Concepts: Percent of a quantity, finding missing percent, percent of change, and applying tax.

Materials:

1. Theme folder with brads (needed for final product).
2. Ads from newspapers, magazines, mail, inserts
3. Loose leaf notebook paper or 3X5 cards (optional)
4. Colored construction paper (5-10 pieces)
5. Calculator
6. Pencils
7. glue or glue stick
8. scissors

Requirements:

Ads:

1. You must use exactly 10 ads.
2. You may use a maximum of four ads from the same store.
3. You must use the original store's name for each ad being used
4. Type of ads.
 - A. Four of the ads must have the original price and percent off displayed
 - B. Three of the ads must have the original price and the sale price with no percents showing.
 - C. Three of the ads must have the selling price without percent or original price as part of the ad.

Work:

1. All steps must be shown
2. You decide which method of calculation you want to use : Saving or spending or combination.
3. You will use a calculator to calculate all of you work. Round up to the next penny for all final answers.
4. You may use a word processor to write out your work if you so desire.
5. You are required to have a balance sheet at the beginning of the project.

Presentation:

1. Your project is to be in a theme folder with brads.
2. All ads (one per sheet) with the work for the ad, are artistically displayed on construction paper.
3. Your name, date period and homeroom must be placed on the front of your decorated theme folder.
4. Your work templates are to be at the back of the project.
5. Your ads need to be in the order they are presented on the balance sheet.